WHITE BOYS IN BLUE.

Meet Tuesday Eve., Nov. 5th.

Returns of the Eastern Elections Will be Read.

Every man whose name is on the roll is expected to be present. Speeches may be expected.
By order, GRAND GUARD.

At the PENITENTIARY.—They have already commenced work on the shop, burned at the Penitentiary on Saturday. The joists on one of the buildings were raised yesterday. In a few days all will be ready for work.

PENITENTIARY ARRIVALS.—Holmes county brought in one prisoner to-day: William Hemmel, grand larceny, one year.

There are at this time 900 prisoners in the Penitentiary, of which number 35 are females.

SWEET.—A newly married man at the North end having been asked by his wife, as he started down town in the morning, to send home something nice and sweet, sent a pint of molasses, a pound of sugar, and a peck of sweet potatoes.

HELD FOR POSTAGE.—Letters addressed as follows are held for postage at the Columbus postoffice to Nov. 4th: Messrs. Kenworthy & Co., Cincinnati, O.; Miss B. Thompson, West Chester, Chester Co., Pa. This last letter is embellished with a two cent internal revenue stamp.

NUTTING.—Many of our boys have visited the woods during the past week on nutting expeditions, and have returned quite successful. One party of young lads returned yesterday with four or five bushels of walnuts and hickory nuts. Nuts of all kinds are said to be very abundant this season.

TRANSFERRED YESTERDAY.—The following transfer of real estate was left at the recorder's office on yesterday:
Julius Hall, guardian, to John Walls, Dec. 31, 1887, lot No. 1 of a subdivision of 12½ acres of land in Montgomery township, for $222.

ADENDA.—In regard to our statement of the little naked boy who came to D. Jones' residence on Sunday, published yesterday, we have learned that his last name is Jones, and that his first name has not been decided on. That will be determined on when he is christened. Mother and child are doing well.

VAGRANTS.—Now that the cold weather is approaching, the number of vagrants and paupers applying for almshouse and station house lodging is increasing. Every day application is for tickets of admission into the poor house, "good for the season." In many instances the applicants are colored people.

THE STREET CARS.—We noticed yesterday that the street cars are running about the depot. This is a great convenience to passengers, who can now, because of the neat pavement made on High street, get on the cars in wet weather without being compelled to wade knee deep in mud at the North Public Lane crossing.

FILED YESTERDAY.—The Little Mountain Association filed its certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State, yesterday, organized for the purpose of building a hotel, &c., as a place of summer resort, at Little Mountain, Concord township, Lake county. Capital stock $25,000 in shares of $500 each. Chas. Bratenahl, Henry C. Blossom and William Edwards are the incorporators.

IN TOWN.—Hon. D. W. Stambaugh, Senator elect from the Cotoch and Tuscarawas District, visited us in our sanctum yesterday. He is of the class of political speakers of whom the Ohio Democracy have such cause to be proud. His labors were great during the campaign and were marked by the increased Democratic vote wherever he spoke.

THE STOLEN HORSE.—The horse thief, whose arrest we spoke of yesterday, is named James N. Wells, alias James N. Jenkins. The mare was stolen from a man named Humphreys, living three miles from West Jefferson, in Madison county, and not from Miami county, as stated by us. The owner of the animal was in the city yesterday, and identified his property. The thief will be taken to Madison county for trial.

NEW STYLE.—It is announced by one of the fashion journals that a new mode of dressing children is to be introduced this winter. Instead of being smooth, or plaited in broad bands, they are to be ornamented with a lot of tresses which are to dance with every move of the head. Moreover, a new head-dress has been invented to surround the chignon. It is a sort of boy's cap with a large peak to it, a gold band round it, and gold knobs on the top. Decidedly ornamental.

THE CAUSE.—People frequently ask the cause of the scarcity and high prices of the necessities of life. The reason is that we have too many consumers and not enough producers. Our towns and cities are full of clerks, salesmen, agents, &c., seeking in vain for employment, while farmers need experienced hands, and thousands of fertile acres lie uncultivated.—When we have more agriculturalists and fewer non-producing consumers provisions will be plenty and cheap—and not until then.

THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.—There was a grand turnout at West's Capital Billiard Hall last night, to witness the match game between John Coo, of Chicago, and Frank Parker, of Louisville, played on a four-pocket Brunswick table. The playing elicited round after round of applause. The game was of 500 points, and resulted as follows:
Coo—0, 12, 24, 0, 3, 3, 8, 45, 15, 8, 0, 2, 24, 2, 69, 64, 9, 27, 5, 10, 0, 2, 5, 62, 26, 2, 0, 3, 4, 11, 5, 0, 2, 1, 0, 7, 12, 1, 59.
Parker—6, 7, 15, 7, 2, 0, 2, 6, 0, 43, 47, 0, 5, 9, 17, 6, 13, 31, 0, 18, 42, 11, 25, 3, 20, 9, 6, 9, 0, 33, 11, 6, 2, 6, 7, 2, 25—488.
Coo's average, 12.9-41; Parker's average, 13.9-45.
Coo's greatest run, 69; Parker's greatest run, 47.

After the regular game was over, these gentlemen gave a splayed crowd a few samples of what could be done with billiard balls. It seemed impossible to place the balls where they could not be counted on.

To-night these gentlemen play a carom game of 1,000 points at West's saloon. Everybody who loves billiards—and who does not—will be present.

THE NEW SKIRT.—The new and most fashionable skirt, the "Boulevard," has been received at Naughton's extensive dry goods house. This new skirt is one of the neatest, handsomest affairs we have seen. It is made of wool—no other material used—and of a bluish or reddish gray color, weighs just one pound, and is very handsomely braided. It has no seams, being made by a new process on a cone mould similar to the cones used in manufacturing hats. It has proved the "sensation" of the season. It is by far the handsomest as well as most convenient colored skirt that has ever been introduced to the notice of ladies, and is the only one exactly adapted to the requirements of the present style of gored dresses.

Notwithstanding its warmth and the durability of its texture, it is very light, and could scarcely be found burdensome even in the mildest weather. This is partly owing to the quality of the material and partly to the entire absence of plaits, which not only reduces the weight, but gives a perfect outline to the form and an admirable base for the smooth fit of an elegant gored dress.

Ladies who have worn the Boulevard are enthusiastic in its praise, and consider it the ne plus ultra—the very perfection of skirts. We also can conscientiously recommend it as an immense improvement on the now old-fashioned Balmoral, and the most complete, useful, and beautiful skirt which we have are acquainted.

In its different styles it is adapted to every possible degree of taste and means, from the quiet housewife to the belle who promonades our thoroughfares. For the former there are the plain skirts simply bound, but shaped as perfectly and finished as neatly as if adorned with the rich embroidery which attracts the latter.

There are also skirts specially adapted for wear with short dresses, skirts for croquet and marquette, and medium skirts with flat box-plaiting, which are always useful and always pretty.

We advise our lady readers to call at Naughton's and examine her selection of velvets, silks, satins, flowers, ribbons, lace, ornaments, trimmings, &c., before making purchases of fall and winter millinery.

TAKE NOTICE.—That the Industrial School will give their annual Festival on Tuesday the 12th of November, at Ambros Hall on High street. The doors open at 7 o'clock P. M. All the committees will please meet at the Hall Tuesday morning at half past 8 o'clock. All our citizens who design helping us, will please send in the donations of whatever kind they may be, (especially fancy articles, flowers and eatables) as early as possible on Tuesday.

There will be a lunch on Wednesday from 12 to 4 o'clock, we cordially invite all the gentlemen in the city to come and dine with us. I think our lady friends will, as usual, provide a good dinner, amply sufficient for themselves and all who may favor us with their patronage. We will also say to all who are disposed to help us, work.

We are very happy to meet them at the Hall on either or both the days. While we feel sure that all our committees will do all in their power to make the festival pleasant and successful, the managers cannot help feeling deeply grieved for the loss of three of their most efficient members who are, for the present at least, on account of severe illness, unable to give us the advice and assistance we prize so highly, and shall sorely miss. The older members of the firm feel that their strength is totally inadequate to perform the amount of labor necessary to success, and therefore hope that very many good Samaritans will step in to fill the shoes of those who have been unable to do so.

STATE STREET THEATRE.—There was a first rate attendance at the State Street Theatre last night. The new names in the bill are those of people who understand their business, and who will be popular with a Columbus audience. The play went off smoothly and gave great satisfaction. To-night Messrs. Denon and Jones take their complimentary benefit, which will show the house will be filled. The bill is one that must give satisfaction, and in addition, arrangements have been made to announce the election returns from Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and Kansas from the stage. By this arrangement those who attend to-night may have the advantage of those who do not. We advise all our readers to attend.

STREET ETIQUETTE.—If a gentleman steps on a lady's dress in the street, which should apologize? Such is the query that comes to us in a male-toile and female-toile. In the first place the lady has a right to have any amount of her dress on the sidewalk; and the gentleman has an equally good right to step where he will. Apologies and explanations are mere matters of individual opinion. The worst part of it is that the dress of the lady is more apt to suffer than the boot of the gentleman. As things are this cannot be helped. When the order of costume is reversed the ladies will be in luck. Hitherto they haven't been in matters of easy-getting-around garments.

They are from the well-known South American collector, A. H. Alexander, of New York city.

N. B.—The whole collection will be on exhibition at the Sales Room this day and evening. nov4-2t

FESTIVAL.—ST. FRANCIS HOSPITAL.—The ladies of Holy Cross congregation will hold a festival for the benefit of the Sisters of St. Francis Hospital, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th, at Naughton Hall. We feel confident that our citizens need only be notified that their assistance is wanted in such a noble cause to respond most liberally to the call. The charitable nature of the hospital is well known to all; within its hospitable walls the invalid, of whatever color or color, receives, gratuitously, the kindest of care and the most devoted attention. Then, who among our citizens can refuse his aid in such a benevolent purpose?

The winter is fast approaching; the hospital must be provided with fuel, together with additional expenses to be incurred, all which are incidental to the winter season.

The funds of the Sisters are inadequate to the demand; they can only be replenished by charity, and therefore they appeal for aid to the well-known generosity of our citizens. Let every one attend the festival on next Tuesday evening, and show by their presence and their contributions how fully they appreciate the noble cause in which the Sisters are engaged. 3t

One party is strongly in favor of the word white from the present Constitution. The majority urge extreme measures. The new Constitution is all out and dried. It includes a provision for the election of a new President, and a clause of the Howard amendment, provides for an extensive system of State aid to private enterprise, and virtually throws all taxes on the whites.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Very little business will be done to-morrow, owing to the State election. The excitement is intense, and immense amounts of money is staked on each side.
